ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

SECTION 1. GENERAL. The purposes of the corporation are as set forth in Article II of the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERS

SECTION 1. GENERAL. The members of the corporation shall be as follows:

(A) Public Sector Members. Individuals employed by governmental units within Michigan shall be eligible for public sector membership. A public official or employee, elected or appointed, engaged by a federal, state or local government within Michigan, in any position relating to public finance, accounting, auditing, budgeting, reporting, treasury, or in another fiscal capacity shall be classified as a public sector member.

(B) Associate Members. Persons not eligible for other memberships, but who are interested in the principles or practices of governmental accounting, auditing, budgeting, reporting, treasury, and other areas of public finance and who subscribe to the objectives of the corporation, shall be eligible to become associate members.

(C) Honorary Life Members. The board of directors may confer an honorary life membership on those who have made an outstanding contribution in the area of governmental finance and accounting and whose efforts have benefited the corporation. No membership dues will be assessed of honorary life members. Fees for programs of the corporation and membership fees will not be assessed of retired honorary life members, which shall consist of honorary life members who otherwise meet the definition of retiree in subsection (e) immediately below. In order to make the granting of this award representative of the honor it signifies, all available past presidents of the corporation and its predecessor shall meet annually at the Spring Conference, at the call of the immediate past president, to review candidates, who may be submitted by any member of the organization. The past presidents shall review all candidates for eligibility and create a nominee ballot for those deemed eligible. The past presidents may recommend a nominee to the board of directors for approval and award. To receive the past presidents recommendation, a nominee must have garnered a majority vote of all past presidents who are current members of MGFOA or a two-thirds (2/3) majority of those past presidents voting. Each past president will be entitled to vote for one nominee. In making the review of a candidate's eligibility, the past presidents shall use the following guidelines:

- (1) Current or past membership in the corporation for a minimum of 10 years;
- (2) Active in the organization through attendance at the annual fall conference, midwinter seminar and other programs and special sessions that the corporation has sponsored;

(D) Fees. Annual Fees for membership shall be established and revised from time to time by the board of directors. Any member who is delinquent for more than ninety (90) days in payment of such dues shall automatically be suspended from membership. Annual membership fees shall be payable on October 1 of each year.

(E) Retiree/Student Members. Individuals who are members in good standing at the time of their retirement may continue membership in the corporation at the retiree rate. A retiree is defined as a former member who is no longer employed or seeking employment in governmental work or providing or seeking to provide services to government clients. The retiree rate will be established by the board of directors of the corporation annually. Students whose primary occupation is full-time attendance at an accredited college or university shall be eligible for the student membership. (Full-time student as defined by the institution.) The student rate will be established by the board of directors of the corporation annually. The student member rate will entitle the individual to receive all benefits received by the public sector members except for voting privileges.

(F) Code of Professional Ethics. All members shall read and agree to follow the Code of Professional Ethics, published on our website. Failure to adhere to these principles could cause sanctions up to immediate expulsion of membership by action of the Board of Directors. Retaliation against anyone who reports a possible violation of The Code of Professional Ethics will be treated a direct violation of The Code of Professional Ethics.SECTION 2. PLACE OF MEETING. All meetings of the members of the corporation shall be held at the registered office or such other place, either within or without the State of Michigan, as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 3. ANNUAL MEETING OF MEMBERS. The annual meeting of members for the election of directors and for such other business as may properly come before the meeting, commencing with the year 1998 shall be held at such date, at such time, and such location as shall be determined from time to time by the board of directors, to be held during the annual Michigan Government Finance Officers Association Training Institute. If the annual meeting is not held on the date designated therefore, the board of directors shall cause the meeting to be held as soon thereafter as convenient.

SECTION 4. NOTICE OF MEETING OF MEMBERS. Except as otherwise provided in the Michigan Nonprofit Corporation Act (the "Act"), written notice of the time, place and purpose of a meeting of members shall be given not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting, either personally, by mail or email at their last known address to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting. When a meeting is adjourned to another time and place, it is not necessary to give notice to the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken and at the adjourned meeting only such business is transacted as might have been transacted at the original meeting. However, if after the adjournment the board of directors fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting on the new record date.

SECTION 5. LIST OF MEMBERS ENTITLED TO VOTE. The officer or agent having charge of the membership records of the corporation shall make and certify a complete list of the members entitled to vote, comprised of all members of all classes, at a members' meeting or any adjournment thereof. In order for any act requiring a vote to pass, a majority of quorum present shall be the minimum that is necessary, unless otherwise specified under these Bylaws. The members present at such meeting may continue to do business until adjournment. Whether or not a quorum is present, the meeting may be adjourned by a majority vote of the members present.

SECTION 7. VOTE OF MEMBERS. Each voting member is entitled to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote. A vote may be cast either orally or in writing. When an action, other than the election of directors, is to be taken by vote of the members, it shall be authorized by a majority of the votes cast by the members entitled to vote thereon, unless a greater plurality is required by the articles of incorporation or the Act. Directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at an election.

ARTICLE IV – DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. GENERAL. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the board of directors except as otherwise provided in the Act. All directors and officers of the corporation shall be public officials or public employees; provided, however, that at least one associate member, but not more than three associate members, shall be elected to serve as Classified Directors.

SECTION 2. NUMBER AND TERM OF DIRECTORS. The number of directors which shall constitute the whole board shall be eleven (11) directors. Four (4) of such directors shall be the Executive Committee, which shall be the president, the vice president-secretary, the immediate past president, the treasurer, (as defined below) (collectively, the "Executive Committee"). As required by the Act, the initial Executive Committee shall be selected by the incorporator for such terms as the incorporator shall specify and as are in accordance with the further provisions of these bylaws. The successors to such initial Executive Committee shall be appointed or selected as provided in the further provisions of these bylaws. The remaining seven (7) members of the board of directors (the "Classified Directors") shall serve for two-year terms. No fewer than three (3) of the Classified Directors shall be elected each year. Following his or her service as a Classified Director, such Classified Director shall be eligible to immediately become an Executive Committee member subject to the term limits applicable to such Directors. At the discretion of the Nominating Committee Chairman and the President of the Board, a Classified Director may be eligible to become an Executive Committee member after completing one year of his or her term.

SECTION 3. ELECTION. A nominations committee, consisting of those persons designated pursuant to Section 2 of Article VI of these bylaws, annually shall develop a slate of directors which shall equal the number of Classified Directors to be elected that year, the vice president-secretary and the treasurer to be recommended by the members. The nominations committee, after developing a slate of nominees, shall present the same to the members of the corporation for their consideration. Additional nominations may be made by the members of the corporation at that time. Upon receiving the slate of nominees from the nominations committee and nominations of the membership, the members of the corporation may accept or reject the same in whole or in part. Those elected shall be elected as members of the board of directors for the appropriate terms. If any nominations are rejected, the nominations committee and/or the membership shall make subsequent submissions until acceptance results.

SECTION 4. VACANCIES. Unless otherwise limited by the articles of incorporation, a vacancy occurring in the board may be filled by the affirmative vote of the majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum of the board. A directorship to be filled because of an increase in the number of directors, or to fill a vacancy, may be filled by the board for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors by the members. If because of death, resignation, or other cause, a corporation has no directors in office, an officer, a member, an executor, administrator, trustee, or guardian of a member, or other fiduciary entrusted with like responsibility for the person or estate of a member, may call a special meeting of members in accordance with the articles of incorporation or these bylaws.

SECTION 5. REMOVAL. A director may be removed, with or without cause, by the board of directors, but only by a two-thirds vote of the remaining board members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

SECTION 6. RESIGNATION. A director may resign by written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective upon its receipt by the corporation or a later time as set forth in the notice of resignation.

SECTION 7. POWERS. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its board of directors except as otherwise provided in the Act or in the articles of incorporation.

No notice of such meeting shall be necessary to the newly elected directors in order legally to constitute the meeting, provided a quorum shall be present, unless said meeting is not held at the place of holding and immediately following the annual meeting of members.

SECTION 10. REGULAR MEETING OF BOARD. Any regular meeting of the board of directors may be held without notice at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the board.

SECTION 11. SPECIAL MEETING OF BOARD. Any special meeting of the board of directors may be called by the president, or by a majority of the persons then comprising the board of directors, at any time by means of notice of the time and place thereof to each director, given not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time such special meeting is to be held.

SECTION 12. ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT. Action required or permitted to be taken pursuant to authorization voted at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if, before or after the action, a majority of members of the board or of the committee consent thereto in writing. The written consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board of directors or committee. The consent has the same effect as a vote of the board of directors or committee for all purposes.

SECTION 13. QUORUM AND REQUIRED VOTE OF BOARD. At all meetings of the board of directors, one-third of the members of the board then in office constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business, unless the articles of incorporation or these bylaws provide for a larger number provided, however, that where there are seven or less directors, a majority constitutes a quorum of the board. The vote of the majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present constitutes the action of the board of directors unless the vote of a larger number is required by the Act, the articles of incorporation or these bylaws. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the board of directors, the directors present thereat may adjourn the meeting from time to time, with written notice to all members of the board, until a quorum shall be present.

SECTION 14. COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS. The board of directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of directors in office and irrespective of any personal interest of any of them, may establish reasonable compensation of directors for services to the corporation as directors or officers, but approval of the members is required.

SECTION 15. PARTICIPATION IN MEETING BY TELEPHONE. By oral or written permission of a majority of the board of directors, a member of the board of directors or of a committee designated by the board may participate in a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

SECTION 16. CORPORATION POLICY.

Policy of the Corporation may be declared only in the following manner:

A. By action adopted by a vote of sixty percent (60%) of the membership voting at a meeting of the corporation, or otherwise) and until his or her successor is elected or appointed and qualified, or until his or her resignation or removal. An officer may be removed, with or without cause, by the board of directors, but only by a two-thirds vote of the board members (and where applicable, remaining board members) present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. An officer may resign by written notice to the corporation. The resignation is effective upon its receipt by the corporation or at a subsequent time specified in the notice of resignation. He or she shall give all notice required by the Act, these bylaws or resolution. He or she shall perform such other duties as may be delegated to him or her by the board of directors, any executive committee, or the president.

Except as otherwise provided herein, individuals serving as officers of the corporation shall be eligible to serve for an unlimited number of consecutive terms and to hold other offices; provided, however, that upon the expiration of a person's term as immediate past president, that person shall be eligible to serve as an officer or director again only after the expiration of one year from the expiration of his or her term as immediate past president.

SECTION 6. TREASURER. The treasurer shall have custody of all corporate funds and securities and shall keep in books belonging to the corporation full and accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements; he or she shall deposit all moneys, securities and other valuable effects in the name of the corporation in such depositories as may be designated for that purpose by the board of directors. He or she shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the board of directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements, and shall render to the president and the board of directors whenever requested an account of all his or her transactions as treasurer and of the financial condition of the corporation. SECTION 1. NOTICE. Whenever any notice or communication is required to be given by mail to any director or member under any provision of the Act, or of the articles of incorporation or of these bylaws, it shall be given in writing, except as otherwise provided in the Act, to such director or member at the address designated by him or her for that purpose or, if none is designated, at his or her last known address. The notice or communication is given when deposited, with postage thereon prepaid, in a post office or official depository under the exclusive care and custody of the United States postal service. The mailing shall be registered, certified or other first class mail except where otherwise provided in the Act. Written notice may also be given in person or by e-mail, fax, telegram, telecopy, telex, radiogram, cablegram, or mailgram, and such notice shall be deemed to be given when the recipient receives the notice personally, or when the notice, addressed as provided above, has been delivered to the corporation, or to the equipment transmitting such notice. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, a regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice of the meeting.

SECTION 2. WAIVER OF NOTICE. When, under the Act or the articles of incorporation or these bylaws, or by the terms of an agreement or instrument, the corporation or the board of directors or any committee thereof Attendance of a person at a meeting of members, in person or by proxy, constitutes a waiver of notice of the meeting, except when the member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Attendance of a director at a meeting constitutes a waiver of notice of a meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, a regular or special meeting need be specified in the waiver of notice of the meeting.

ARTICLE VIII - INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 1. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS:

CLAIMS BY THIRD PARTIES. The corporation shall, to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the Act or other applicable law, as the same presently exists or may hereafter be amended, indemnify a director or officer (the Indemnitee") who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to a threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee, non-director volunteer or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, non-director volunteer or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, business corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, whether for profit or not for profit, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, penalties, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding, if the Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner the Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if the Indemnitee had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, does not, of itself, create a presumption that the Indemnitee did not act in good faith and in a manner which the Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.

SECTION 2. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS:

CLAIMS BROUGHT BY OR IN THE RIGHT OF THE CORPORATION. The corporation shall, to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the Act or other applicable law, as the same presently exists or may hereafter be amended, indemnify an Indemnitee who was or is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to a threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the Indemnitee is or was a director, officer, employee, non-director volunteer or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, non-director volunteer or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, business corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, whether for profit or not, against expenses, including actual and reasonable attorneys' fees, and amounts paid in settlement incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with the action or suit, if the Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner the Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation. However, indemnification under this Section shall not be made for a claim, issue, or matter in which the Indemnitee has been found liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought has determined upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, the Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for the expenses which the court considers proper.

SECTION 3. ACTIONS BROUGHT BY THE INDEMNITEE. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this Article, the corporation shall not indemnify an Indemnitee in connection with any action, suit, proceeding or claim (or part thereof) brought or made by such Indemnitee; unless such action, suit, proceeding or claim (or part thereof): (i) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation, or (ii) was brought or made to enforce this Article and such Indemnitee has been successful in such action, suit, proceeding or claim (or part thereof).

SECTION 4. ADVANCEMENT OF EXPENSES. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding described in Sections 1 or 2 of this Article shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding upon receipt of any undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnitee to repay the expenses if it is ultimately determined that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The undertaking shall be by unlimited general obligation of the person on whose behalf advances are made but need not be secured.

SECTION 5. PARTIAL INDEMNIFICATION. If an Indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under Sections 1 or 2 of this Article for a portion of expenses including attorneys' fees, judgments, penalties, fines, and amounts paid in settlement, but not for the total amount thereof, the corporation shall indemnify the Indemnitee for the portion of the expenses, judgments, penalties, fines, or amounts paid in settlement for which the Indemnitee is entitled to be indemnified.

SECTION 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES, NON-DIRECTOR VOLUNTEERS AND AGENTS. Any person who is not covered by the foregoing provisions of this Article and who is or was an employee, non-director volunteer or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a trustee, director, officer, employee, non-director volunteer or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, business corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, whether for profit or not for profit, may be indemnified to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by the Act or other applicable law, as the same exist or may hereafter be amended, but in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than before such amendment, but in any event only to the extent authorized at any time or from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 7. OTHER RIGHTS OF INDEMNIFICATION. The indemnification or advancement of expenses provided under Sections 1 to 7 of this Article is not exclusive of other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under the articles of incorporation, these bylaws, or a contractual agreement. However, the total amount of expenses advanced or indemnified from all sources combined shall not exceed the amount of actual expenses incurred by the person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses. The indemnification provided for in Sections 1 to 7 of this Article continues as to a person who ceases to be a trustee, director, officer, employee, non-director volunteer or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of the person.
